

Having problems with our garage door opener. Used to open from about 200 feet. Now I have to be right outside the door. Problem started this past week or so. News report ABC27 indicates problem could be transmitter at Navy DEPOT. I think it would be in publics interest to change transmitter frequency than have us change ours.